

THE SANTA CRUZ PROPHECY

THE SPECIAL SEASON OF EVANGELISM, SOUL-WINNING, CHURCH PLANTING, HEALING, DELIVERANCE FROM DEMONS AND THE BREAKING OF CURSES AND REVIVAL FOR ALL IN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY FELLOWSHIP INTERNATIONAL WORLDWIDE

My son, you are crying out to Me to send revival on the Christian Missionary Fellowship International people. I have heard your prayer and have decided to restore them, each one of them, all of them, to their first love for Me. I have decided to do it and I have set out to do it. I will do it! I will do it!! I will do it!!!

One mark of a person's first love for Me is the testifying, the proclamation of the Gospel to all in season and out of season. Command all Christian Missionary Fellowship International people to invade the world with evangelism, soul-winning and church planting between now and the end of the year. Let all go out for evangelism, soul-winning and church planting, regardless of their spiritual condition, and I will do wonders. Let those who have backslidden for decades go out and proclaim the Gospel in their backslidden condition and keep doing so. Let all who have been trapped into various sins, rebellion, disobedience, failure to pray, failure to read My Word, failure to have daily dynamic encounters, failure to read Christian literature, failure to go on retreats for spiritual progress, failure to fast, failure to give to Me, etc, go out as they are and begin to carry out evangelism, soul-winning and church planting and to continue to do so, even though they feel like "dry bones". As they begin to so evangelise, win souls and plant churches, regardless of their feelings, regardless of their estrangement from Me, I will begin to flow in life, in restoration, in taking away their sins, in drawing them to Myself, in renewing them in the Holy Spirit, in filling them with My Holy Spirit and in making them red-hot for Me in a lasting way. They will also see that as they begin to evangelise, win souls and plant churches without any feeling or desire to do so, provided they continue without considering how they feel, I will begin to restore their emotions for Me and for My evangelism, soul-winning and church planting ministry, in such a way that they will burn for Me and work almost uncontrollably.

Restoration to the Lord

Obedience in evangelism, soul-winning and church planting, regardless of spiritual condition.

Restoration to feeling of intimacy with the Lord

Obedience in evangelism, soul-winning and church planting, regardless of feeling of intimacy with the Lord.

I am sending everyone in Christian Missionary Fellowship International out into a ministry of evangelism, soul-winning and church planting as My way to restore them to their first love for Me and as My method to bring about the needed growth in numbers.

I command all the saints who go out to heal the sick, cast out demons and break curses along with the evangelism, soul-winning and church planting. In fact, the two belong to each other. The two belong to the one ministry of the salvation of man. All the saints, regardless of their spiritual condition, should pray for the sick, command demons to leave and command curses to be broken, regardless of how they feel inwardly or outwardly. If they will only believe Me and, as they evangelise, win souls and plant churches, also pray for the sick, command demons to leave and command curses to be broken, they will see great things happen, provided they act in obedience, independently of how they feel, and provided they continue to minister even when there are no immediate signs of healings, deliverances and curses broken. Some will “see” outstanding results with the first cases they minister to. Others will only “see” results after they have ministered to one hundred people. Still others will only “see” results after they have ministered to five hundred people and, finally, some will only “see” results after they have ministered to one thousand people. The overall number of people saved, healed and delivered will be directly proportional to the number of people who have received ministry, regardless of how the ministers felt and regardless of how much personal qualification they depended on. Those who consider themselves less qualified but believe and obey My Word and go out to the largest number of people, will receive the greatest reward in the number of people saved and in the number of people healed and delivered.

Some people who receive the ministry of salvation, healing and deliverance will manifest the flow of Heaven into them and upon them immediately. Others who receive the ministry of salvation, healing and deliverance will manifest the flow of Heaven into them and upon them hours, days, weeks and even months later. However, I want My children to move ahead and witness or preach, lead the willing to invite Me into their hearts and begin to disciple them for the Lord Jesus, believing that I have transferred them from the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus, and it will be as they have believed that I have done it. Similarly, they shall lay hands on the sick and in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ command them to be healed, command those possessed with demons to be delivered and command curses to come to an end in the lives of the people. At the end of the year, it will become evident even to the skeptics that I have saved and healed more people in Christian Missionary Fellowship International in three months than I have done in the thirty-two years of her existence. There has been and there will continue to be apostolic ministry of evangelism, soul-winning, church planting, healing, deliverance and breaking of curses. There has been and there will continue to be the special ministry of evangelism, soul-winning, church planting, healing, deliverance from demons and the breaking of curses of some of My children. There has been and there will continue to be the special ministry of evangelism, soul-winning, church planting, healing, deliverance from demons and the breaking of curses of the elders and leaders. However, I am bringing something new into existence. I am bringing the ministry of the entire body into function. The grandparents have a place and must bring in their contribution. The parents have a place and must bring in their contribution. The youths have a place and must bring in their contribution. The children have a place and must bring in their contribution. Each member of the body has a place and must bring in his or her contribution. It is the ministry of the entire body. It is the ministry of “dry bones” satisfying the heart of God through obedience and, in the process, coming back into their lost inheritance. It is the ministry of the discouraged saints coming back to the abundance of their God through cold-headed obedience and action. It is the ministry of rejoicing saints coming into the fullness of their God through faith and action. It is the ministry that will lift the eyes and heart from self to God. It is the ministry through which I will begin to work out the unity of husbands and wives, parents and children, house church members, local church members, and so on. I shall be exalted! The Lord Jesus shall be exalted!! The Holy Spirit shall be exalted!!! The saints shall be edified!!!! The lost shall be saved!!!!!! The sick, the possessed and the cursed shall enter into divine liberty!!!!!! A victorious and numerous Body shall celebrate the end of the year in hitherto undreamt-of depth, breadth and height, and in numbers that are entirely overwhelming.

I expect each one in Christian Missionary Fellowship International, upon reading this, to go out and immediately begin to obey. Soon the existing House Churches will be full to overflowing with new members and restored backsliders. The use of new homes will come out spontaneously (some House Churches will grow to hundreds of members). Doors will open for churches to be started in new localities, and people shall move as the Holy Spirit leads, in submission to existing leaders whose function shall be to let the Lord have His way, by getting out of His way, and by encouraging those who are moving and who are being moved by the Holy Spirit. The normal functioning of the churches and the work shall continue. The Word shall continue to be taught and preached in power, but only as the Holy Spirit leads. Thanksgiving and Praise shall be abundant. Structures shall continue to be rented, borrowed or built as the need arises. Brotherly love shall flow forth. Heart-rending repentances and radical restitutions shall be the order of the day. Gentleness, tenderness, humility and the counting of others better than oneself shall be the life of the Body worldwide. Sharp words, sharp rebukes, sharp correction and the excluding of anyone shall be the sole prerogative of the Holy Spirit. Books shall be sold in limitless numbers in Yaounde, Cameroon, Africa and worldwide. Those who are not involved in the selling of the books or have backslidden from the selling of the books, shall immediately restore themselves to this glorious task. I do not recommend the use of evangelistic tracts during this special season of evangelism, soul-winning and church planting, because I want My children to talk to people and not just hand out tracts. I want every believer to recover the lost art of telling the old, old story through his or her own lips.

The only fasts allowed during this period are the Wednesday fasts and the three day fasts each month for all believers, and these are compulsory for all. (Those with distinctive ministries of fasting should continue with these, but they must be involved with all in evangelism, soul-winning and church planting. The only praying allowed during this special season is individual praying and specially organized local church prayer meetings, as well as normal local church praying. The prayer nights at the Headquarters in Yaounde, the World Conquest Prayer Centre, the All Nations Houses of Prayer, etc, should continue, but all who are involved must present a distinctive harvest of souls won and added to the churches, to convince themselves and others that they are in touch with Heaven. Regular accounts of souls reached, souls won and added to the churches and churches planted, shall be rendered to the various authorities. This special Evangelism, Soul-winning and church planting shall end on 9th December, to be followed by a period of organization and final accountability, which you shall receive from all the leaders in all the nations where Christian Missionary Fellowship International is represented. The final report shall be on your desk on the 30th of December and you shall present it to Me on the 31st of December 2007.

You shall fast until the 9th of December as a continuation of the battle against the hosts of wickedness in the Heavenly places. You shall pray alone and with others for one thousand hours and you shall go in and out of Yaounde until the fast ends at the end of the season. You shall contribute most significantly to the revival by your prayers alone and the prayers of those who will fast and pray with you. You shall labour and ensure that the number of souls birthed and added to the churches in the ministry worldwide reaches a total of five hundred thousand. I have recently revealed to you the weapon of shameless, stubborn, unceasing and persistent asking. Use this weapon! Use this weapon!! Use this weapon!!! Ask, ask and ask!!! You shall preach the Gospel in 22 places in Yaounde during the season. You shall heal ten thousand who shall come to you for ministry in your presence. You shall heal multitudes who shall demand healing from a distance.

You shall be an entirely different man by the end of the year. The Yaounde elders and leaders shall be entirely different people. The national leaders, elders, international missionaries, national missionaries, House Church leaders, all male leaders, all female leaders, all grandfathers, all grandmothers, all parents, all youths, all children and everyone in Christian Missionary Fellowship International shall be restored to Me, set on fire by the Holy Spirit, and filled to overflowing, to overflowing indeed. The Brazzaville Prophecy will be fulfilled for all to confess that I have done it, and all the glory shall be Mine.

You will then have Christian Missionary Fellowship International as a movement of people who are born again, have forsaken all to follow Me, are entirely sanctified, are filled with the Holy Spirit, are absolutely consecrated to Me and perfected, and continue to move from one degree of perfection to another and to another and to another, and so on.

From the 10th of December to the 30th of December, I shall take you apart for twenty-one days in My immediate and exclusive presence; so that I may enjoy you, give Myself anew to you, and show you the Heavenly model for leading a Christian Missionary Fellowship International in which everyone is a born again person who has forsaken all to follow Me, who is entirely sanctified, filled with the Holy Spirit, absolutely consecrated and perfected, and is on the way to ever-increasing degrees of perfection. Yes, you will need this time with Me to learn from Me how to lead such people, because all of it shall be new and you have nothing in your past or in the past of others to guide you or to help you. Because this is so, every minute of the twenty-one days shall be soaked in prayer by all who love you and are concerned about the future to which I have called you, both in your ministry and in My global purposes.

I love you dearly.

I have spoken to you and through you to all Mine whom I have placed under your leadership.

Your future and theirs will depend on the extent to which I am believed and obeyed.

I command all of you to believe and to obey.

I give you and all the power, the anointing to believe Me and to obey all that I have said here.
