DAILY DYNAMIC ENCOUNTERS WITH GOD

SOME EXTRACTS FROM THE TEACHINGS OF Z.T.F.

1.

The whole life is to be invested to seek God.

But in the morning, concentrated seeking is to take place.

Psalm 63: 1-2.

He beheld, saw him, because he sought him.

95% of all that the Lord has told me in the last 10 years came from my Daily Dynamic Encounters with God.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are times to seek, find, know the Lord, love Him and make Him the supreme joy.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are for seeking Him. So it is for a heart that hungers, thirsts, gasps for God.

2.

As far as revival is concerned, they are three things involved:

- Restore every body to real Daily Dynamic Encounters with God (DDEWG)
- Separate everyone from sin
- Everyone is filled with the Holy Spirit

Those things will normalize the future. In fact, if everybody just returned to his Daily Dynamic Encounters with God (DDEWG) UNFAILINGLY, we will already make a lot of progress. There are many people converted in the last 7 years who are "discipled" by people who are not disciples.

The issue number one is a return to Daily Dynamic Encounters with God.

Nobody can encounter God regularly and not burn for souls. Let us pray that God would bring the saints back to Daily Dynamic Encounters with God regularly.

3.

Pray about your Daily Dynamic Encounters with God, that you will hunger for God.

- ✓ That you will wait on God
- ✓ That you will cry to meet God
- ✓ That you will come out knowing I met God, and this is what He did to me
- ✓ That you will come out knowing I met God, and this is what He said to me.

It is not just, what God says. It is what God also does.

Pray that:

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God will be times when God does things to me.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God will be times when God says things to me.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God will be times when God sends me.

That Christian Missionary Fellowship International will be made of people who pray alone.
That Christian Missionary Fellowship International will be made of people who have deep
Daily Dynamic Encounters with God.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are for listening to God to hear His voice and obeying Him.
So that a person should know: this is what God told me. I heard Him clearly and obeyed Him.

Pray that this will be imparted, imparted sealed, sealed in each of us.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are for listening to God. They are for listening to God.
They are for hearing God's voice (because) you can listen and not hear.

And then for knowing what to obey.

Listening, hearing, and obeying.

Ivorian Convention Yamoussoukro; Yaounde 16th September, 1999.

During each Daily Dynamic Encounters with God, examine yourself before God in the light of the seven followings groups of sins (7Fs). (Fortune, Females, Fame, Falsehood, Food, Freedom, Faithfulness). Faithfulness: where did I make a promise and did not fulfil.

Holy Spirit show me anything else wrong in my life. My relationship with my wife, with my co-workers, etc.

If the Holy Spirit says nothing is left, you can begin to meditate.

Never go to the meditation until the Holy Spirit says "all is right".

Life depends upon communion.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God demand that every barrier between man and God be removed.

Each time falsehood comes in, fellowship with God is broken.

Death is the cessation of communion.

A man must ensure that he is in communion with God before beginning to read the word.

There is a way to hit sin on the heart: to confess it to somebody, you will like to impress so that he may know you for who you are.

Are you a professional hypocrite, take down the mask.

Confess every sin in motive, thoughts, word, acts, attitude, and disposition. Transparency and truth.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are the journeys of a soul.

For the whole of 1993, I wrestled with God on the issue of radical consecration.

In conflicts, God gives you the desires of your heart.

Every step of spiritual progress launches a person into new areas of conflict.

Keep meditating on where you are until you get to victory.

6.

Father cause the leaders to get to deep and deep and deep Daily Dynamic Encounters with God.
There were 224 house Churches in January 1999 there are 205 house Churches in September 1999 (20 having been closed and opened 1).

There can be no future without deep Daily Dynamic Encounters with God.

The leaders cannot keep the Churches without deep Daily Dynamic Encounters with God.

Pray that the leaders will return to deep praying alone.

Pray that the wives of leaders will return to deep-seated Daily Dynamic Encounters with God. Father, convict the wives of the leaders of superficial Daily Dynamic Encounters or absence of Daily Dynamic Encounters with God.

Bring them back to Daily Encounters with God that are communion with God.

For the leaders who have lost You for so long, it is so dark they don't know where to start. Draw them out of the darkness of a backslidden condition back to real dynamic encounters with God. If Daily Dynamic Encounters are kept dynamic with God, a person can not backslide.

Prayer Meeting; Yaounde, 23rd September, 1999.

May daily encounters be labours to encounter God.

My daily encounters are deepening with passing time.

If a man does not have deep encounters with God and wants to build a relation with a leader who is truly spiritual, he wants to socialize with him. And truly spiritual leaders always run away from socialists. If the Church in ..... will rise up to heights, the elders have to change the people they permit into their close environment. God must be the One they turn around the most.

In Daily Dynamic Encounters with God, I come to re-establish my communion with my Lord and to receive direction from Him for the day.

The first purpose of life is to: seek, find; know, love God.

That is what Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are about: to seek God.

9.

It was in the purpose of God that His children will gasp after Him, so that after a few minutes without communion with Him, they will feel like dying.

It is a pity that the people gasp for air more than for God.

Do I fast because I want God?

Do I fast because I want the things fasting produce?

Do I fast because I want the fame of fasting?

Know where you are. What is new in your relationship with God?

We are to seek deep and lasting spiritual experiences. We are to seek encounters with God that leave permanent marks in our lives.

Which sin did you permanently forsake last year?

If Daily Dynamic Encounters with God don't leave mile stones in your life, you are wasting time.

10.

This is what the Christian life was meant to be. Jesus did not come to seek servants but lovers. God's purpose in creation was to: Have in man a loving companion. Jesus is coming for those who love Him. Lovers. How can I build a lover relationship with Jesus?

How does this relate to Daily Dynamic Encounters with God: the goal of Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is to build this lover relationship with Jesus, not to fill pages to show somebody. So it must be heart to heart.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God should help accomplish this goal of a lover with the Savior. Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are to be evaluated as to whether they produce a lover relationship, not in their number, but in quality. Not just the discipline of the body but the flow of the heart. I have goals in building my relationship with God.

The goals this year must include: methods towards building and a price paid towards building my relationship with God.

This year the flames for holy love must possess my being for my Eternal Father.

The lover relationship is very costly.

The Savior says: Child give me your heart.

You say: God take my money, hours, ... God says: give me your heart.

You say: God I will fast, have a 40 day prayer crusade, give You 100%, go to Siberia for You.

Teaching on Daily Dynamic Encounters with God; Yaounde, 15th January, 1994.

11.

The Lord Jesus decided He will minister to Him (the Father) first before ministering to men.

The Lord Jesus decided He will go to God before man came to Him

That is why it is very early.

The best hours of the day are after sleep.

Make it life's priority to meet Him as a priority.

There is a time when not to withdraw to a lonely place is to break.

There is a time when not to withdraw to cry aloud is to fail to penetrate.

There is a time when in the course of your communion with God if you didn't cry aloud you will be choking spiritually.

In the course of building relationship with God, you cannot be blocking the emotions and grow in the relationship

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are times when you give yourself to seek your Father.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God are times when you give yourself to whisper: "I love You" in His ear.

In Daily Dynamic Encounters with God the goal is to satisfy the heart of God and have the heart satisfied by God. Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is a heart affair. It is an affair of lovers.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God do have as goal the seeking, finding, knowing, loving God.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is a time when the yearning fainting heart meets God.

The normal Christian heart seeks, faints, thirsts, hungers after God.

Any heart that does not seek, faint after God is sick. It is decaying.

Even at the human level, a relationship can die.

When the lord Jesus, still in Mary's womb, entered Zechariah's house, John leaped for joy.

Why are you so dead in your heart? Why do your emotions not flow to God?

When love is in full swing, you keep the book, the pen, the Bible at the place of your encounter waiting for the hour of dynamic encounter.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is an encounter of lovers.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is an encounter of an earthly lover with the heavenly Lover.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is the pursuit of a heavenly lover.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is melting, breaking of the earthly lover for the heavenly lover.

Daily Dynamic Encounters with God is a love affair, worshipper and the Worshipped.

One comes there to look for God and take God away or it is a failure.

If he does not meet God in order to go away with God, there is a deep sense of lost.

He ask: what have I done wrong that my Beloved has hid His face from me?

He comes begging to serve, fearing least one in put aside because he failed to satisfy.

He comes begging to be restored.

After a session which was meant to be a DDEWG but turned out to be an analysis of Scripture, did you leave your pages and go on your knees? Did you pray saying:

Lord, forgive me somewhere I have offended You, so You have hidden Your face from me. Have mercy on me, show me where I sinned, where I was negligent, so that I might put things right.

If we can go into our day without Him, He will let us go.

He will only reveal Himself to those who will be frustrated if He didn't.

DDEWG is an activity of Spirit-filled people.

Any attempt to meet the God of holiness with an impure heart is a waste of time.

To have a sin, not confessed, but take one's Bible and want to meditate is to deceive oneself.

Without the overthrow of self, very little progress can happen in a life.

The god of most people is self.

Thursday Prayer Night, Thursday, 13th January, 1994.

12.

If you have one hour to meditate, pray for 20 to 30 minutes and get what you would not get in many hours.

How much I get out of my Daily Dynamic (quality), is dependent not only on my spiritual condition, but on how much time has been invested praying for that Daily Dynamic Encounter.

13.

Let us commit ourselves to 15 minutes of violent praying that we will meet God in Daily Dynamic Encounters with God. Let us commit ourselves to 15 minutes of crying out to God.

Let us commit ourselves to 15 minutes of pulling heaven down.

Of pleading for the Holy Spirit.

Of praying to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Of praying with intensity in order to touch God.

So that Dynamic Encounters with God may be an activity of Spirit-filled men overflowing with God.

Let us commit ourselves to 15 minutes of violent prayer for the condition of our hearts.

15 minutes of crying before God for the dryness of our hearts.

15 minutes of crying before God for the hardness of our hearts.

15 minutes of crying before God for all the commitments taken in the past.

Commit ourselves not to write any word without truly committing ourselves.

The saints do not know how much deceitfulness there is in their hearts.

Lord, help me to know the deceitfulness of my heart.

Lord, help me to know how desperately wicked my heart is.

Lord, help me to know the condition of my heart.

Monday Prayer Night; Monday, 11th March, 1994.

14.

In 1982 I meditated 26 days on one verse. Each meditation for me is something new. Or a new application. I have no passion to write something that I have already known in the past.

Those who don't meditate don't read the word.
Pray that the people will come back to God.
The problem is an aversion for God that is why they refuse to apply themselves.
Pray that the saints will come back to God.
The heart must change.
Pray that God will visit all His children and draw their hearts to Himself.

Special Night ZTF/JN 00.37-05.30; Yaounde, 2nd January, 2002

15.

My Daily Dynamic Encounters with God range from 15 minutes to 8 hours. The longest was 8 hours. The shortest 15 minutes. God can speak to you in 15 minutes. He can also speak to you for 8 hours.

Let us pray that we would be a people who have Daily Dynamic Encounters with God. If you don't know how to draw something from a passage,

Ask: What does this passage teach me about God the Father? God the Son? God the Holy Spirit.

What good example is there for me to imitate.

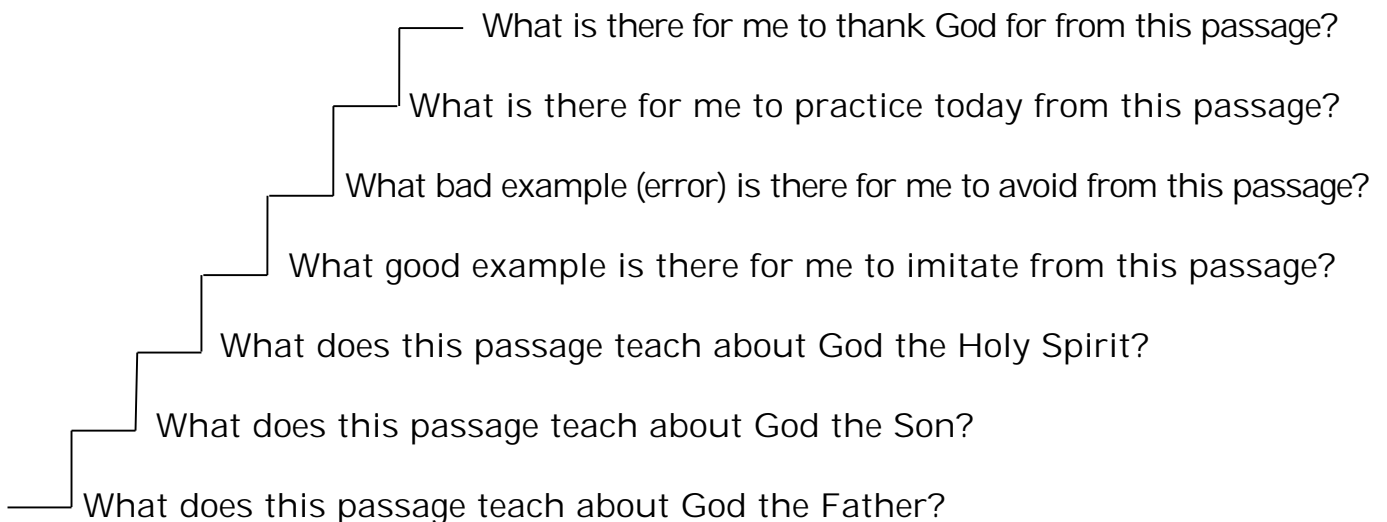

What error is there in this passage for me to avoid?

What is there in this passage for me to practice today?

What is there in this passage for me to thank the Lord for?

If you ask these questions, you can have something.

Lord, grant that it becomes a rule in our lives.

If you ask these questions, you will find something to meditate on every passage of the Bible.

The Lord said that when the global revival will begin, CMFI will bring the distinctive contribution in Daily Dynamic Encounters with God, the making of disciples and accountability. This will ensure that the revival continues and that people continue to walk with God accountably. These are the 3 things CMFI must contribute to the coming revival on everything Christian. We shall have to teach people how to meditate, how to have Daily Dynamic Encounters with God, how to make disciples and how to be accountable so the revival flames will not be put off.
