Chant:

- Quel ami fidèle et tendre

Praise the Lord!

- Stand up and thank God, committing to him this prayer crusade, pleading that the Lord will come and dwell in our midst.
- With your neighbor, each of you will ask five things concerning this night.
- Pray for the first seven days of the crusade, just asking that God will be here
- Pray from the 8th to the 14th day
- Pray for the 15th to the 21st day, pleading for God's presence, because his presence will make all the difference so that it will not just be a culture of prayer, but that we will pray. We have five minutes to really pray and cover up the subject.
- Let us ask the Lord, that at a personal level, we will make progress during the 21 days of this crusade, that day after day, we will go higher and higher with the Lord.
- Let us ask the Lord that the work the Lord has given us will know progress during these first 21 days of the prayer crusade. We are here because we want the work to go ahead. The goals for this season have been clearly defined, let us ask the Lord that because of the prayer crusade, that the work will move ahead.
- Let us pray that we will know an unusual fellowship among ourselves and a bonding.

Song : Les noms de Jésus (melodie : le nom de Jésus est si doux)

- Stand up and praise God for one of His Names

We are going to read one of the revival tract and we are going to pray: "Almost Saved"

Because the Lord is Holy and He expect all who belong to Him to be holy, we're going to ask the Lord, to convict anyone who belongs to CMFI of any of these sins that is in his life. It is an abnormal thing that there is a sin in the life of a believer. In case there is one, you need to repent and reconcile with the Lord.

- Pray that the Holy Spirit will convict each one of any of these sins that is found in their lives, so that they may repent and that the Lord will bless them with the gift of true repentance.

Prayers on sanctification I

We are going to ask the Lord, together, to bless all who are in our ministry with the gift of true repentance

You and your neighbor are going to pray, each five times:

- Lord, bless all the adults with the gift of true repentance
- Lord, bless all the youths in our ministry with the gift of true repentance
- Lord, bless the the children who are part of our ministry with the gift of true repentance.

If the Lord blesses us with the gift of true repentance, we shall have a community that is holy.

- Could five people just insist, pleading with the Lord, that true repentance will be given to our people.

Brother Theodore ANDOSEH/Brother Rene BIKOI

- Let ten brethren thank the Lord for this seventh' prayer crusade in Koume

If you are coming for outside Bertoua, and Head Quarters Spiritual Province, stand up. Tell us where you are coming from and then we will welcome you, for coming to launch the prayer crusade with us.

Halleluiah!

This is the 12th prayer crusade with fasting since Brother Zach to be with the Lord. Brother Zach led us in 57 prayer crusades before going to be with the Lord.

- Thank the Lord for the 57 prayer crusades in which Brother Zach led us before going to be with the Lord.
- Thank the Lord for the 80 prayer siege in which Brother Zach led us to pray before going to be with the Lord;
- Thank the Lord for the 16 books, lessons and teachings on prayer that Brother Zach has left before going to be with the Lord.
- Thank the Lord for those who were trained to pray and fast by Brother Zach life, ministry, practice and teachings.

Brethren, anything that God has produced in you, you will know what God has really produce in you when you produce other who are like you. If God has produced anything in you, you can only know what you are if you can birth it. What you have not birth, you don't know. What you have not produced, you do not know.

David was a worshipper, he produced three great worshippers, Asaph, Jedudun, Ethan. And a choir or over 4000 worshippers. So from one worshipper, worship became part of the national ministry to God. Before David, there was no singing in the worship of God. There was occasional singing in national events. Like during the exodus when Moses led them to sing, and Miriam led them to sing, but singing, worship, music, dancing, in the spiritual history of Israel, was pioneered by David. He changed the mosaic of worship in all Israel by what he was. He stamped it on the whole nation. So David was a worshipper and look at how far he went. What you truly are spiritually, you can birth it, you can produce it. An evangelist is known be whether he has produced other evangelists. David was a giant slayer, he was a killer of giants, and in the history of Israel, he produced three other giant killers:

2Samuel 21:15-22: What David was, he produced four others, giant killers, national saviors.

What you are, you can produce it.

If you like doing something alone while everybody around you cannot do it, you don't have it. Any teacher who knows arithmetic produces students who know mathematics.

David was a commander in Saul army, he produced for his own army, three mighty field marshal: Joab, Abishai and Ittai.

David was a very loyal son, a great son, he had three notorious sons: Solomon the wise, Absalom the terrible, Adonija the usurper. Each of them had become king. Solomon legitimately, Absalom by ambition and Adonija.

David was a great giver, a great giver to God, he produced great givers, three great givers.

2 Samuel 17: 27-29: three great givers, they provided for David and for about 600.000 men for a period going from 6 to 8 months. David was a great giver and he produced giving.

What you are, will be seen by whom you produce.

You notice that whatever David was, he reproduced it. All that he was, he erected the tabernacle in his house, and he has a son who built a temple for God.

What you really are, you can produce.

What you have not given birth to, you don't know.

An intercessor produces intercessors.

A teacher produced teachers.

This is the blindness that follow the love of glory. In that by loving glory, you are so concerned by what people think about you that you sacrifice greatness, because greatness is producing others. When you look at it that way, Brother Zach an unusually great man. He was a university professor, he produced many university professor, he was a scientist research, he produced many research scientist, he was a chemist, he produced many chemists. He was an intercessor, he produced many intercessors and produced many prayer movements and a lot of praying, and he produced a lot of fasting, and many of us received the anointing to fast from his life. He gave to God, he gave sacrificially, and he has produced many people who give to God and who give sacrificially. He was a leader and he has produced many leaders, in fact he has produced some great leaders who even criticize him. Don't worry, if you produce somebody who criticize you, you have succeed. It means he understands enough to even see what you are doing wrong. He was a bible teacher and there are so many bible teachers he has produced. He made disciples and he produced many who have made disciples. If you really know anything, you can produce it.

That is the test of greatness and it is something which those who love glory do not see.

So Brother Zach prayed, Brother Zach taught on prayer and Brother Zach produced those who pray and Brother Zach gave value to prayer.

Pastor Bennett said, as he went all over the churches in Cameroon, he is astonished at the fact that Brother Zach is a spiritual genius in producing a people who can pray. What marveled him is to find the life of the man in the people. Brother Nicola and I, our Governor has been sent to Littoral, he is a consecrated believer, we wrote a letter and thanked him because he has been a good Governor. He called me and say: You people are really funny, this is the first time I am seeing a pastor who sent money to a Governor, pastor go to Governor to take money, those are the stampings of Brother Zach's life.

What you are, you can produce.

If you are a teacher, you may flatter yourself a lot, if you cannot produce it, you don't know it.

It is very sobering truth.

If you loved Brother Zach, we will know. Not by what you say, not by what you do, but by whether you produce others who love him the way you did.

There are many reasons why a man can serve another one.

I can serve somebody:

- To flatter him
- For my own self interest

But if my service is love, then I can produce others who also serve him by love. But if I want to be the only one who serve him in my environment hoping that the other will also serve him the way I do, then I am not serving him, I am buying service for myself, I am doing it for me.

- Thank God for having strengthen us to continue in Brother Zach's ways.
  - The first prayer crusade with fasting was for 40 days in Yaoundé
  - The second one was for 40 days with prayer and fasting
  - The third was 40 days with prayer and fasting
  - The fourth one was 33 days for those of us who were here in Bertoua but 30 days for those who were in Yaoundé
  - The fifth one was 114 days in Koume with 70 partial fast and 80 days for some of some and 40 days complete fast for some.
- Can ten people thank the Lord, for helping us, in our weaknesses, to continue in the ways of Brother Zach.
- Let us pray that we will recall our roots and exaggerate them. We will exaggerate it until when you talk about CMFI, You are talking about people who pray.
- Let us pray that we will recall our roots and uphold the testimony
- Let us pray that we will recall our roots and exaggerate our testimony, our testimony is what God has already produce in our community.

2Chronicles 11: 16-17

For three years, Rehoboam and other walked in the ways of David and Solomon. Then after three years, when Roboam noticed that his leadership was able, he abandoned the ways of David. Because there are many people, when their leadership becomes accepted, when they are no longer insecure, when they have developed roots, they change. They abandoned what gave them credibility.

Do you know what you will behave like when you are strong? When you don't need anybody? Do you know what your heart will become. You may be a good follower when you are still weak, but when you become strong!

One of the kings of the Vikings, he ask his brother: why do you want to go to war? His brother said: "look at those vast expansion of land, war means expanding the domains in which we shall reign. His brother told him, you love to reign, and you do not know that power changes all who have it, that power makes the best men evil, it makes bad men terrible and it make evil the good men. My brother, you have not learnt, that power only come legitimately only on the shoulder of those who bend down. You have not learnt, so power will ruin you. And he told him: I don't love power but I am king."

Do you know what success will do to you?
Do you know what greatness will do to you?
Do you know what wealth will do to you?
Do you know what popularity will do to you?
The love and the songs of women will do to you?

Rehoboam followed the ways of David for some times and when he became strong, when his leadership was accepted, he changed. He abandoned the ways of David, he abandoned what he needed when he was climbing once he arrived. That is why we must recall our roots.

I have determined that I will read twelve books of Brother Zach every years, I am not reading them to know the doctrine, but mostly to make sure I remember the ways of Brother Zach. The heart is slippery, only foolish people believe their past loyalty is like the present loyalty. You may have changed and you are deceived that you are still what you used to be. You have changed. You did not love the world before, now, how you love the world! Remember Rehoboam. Those who start well and go wrong.

At a personal level, everybody must have cardinal point, moral checkpoint. For me the Lord told me some, He told me: that if I want to know God and have God's content, i should not joke with Retreats, daily retreats and seasons of going on shorten retreats.

They know you just about knowing God, seeking God, for me it just come down on "going on retreats"

For power in my ministry and in my work, it bowls down to prayer. I must pray alone and I must pray with brethren and raise much prayer, if I hope that god power and God's hands will manifest in my ministry and in my leadership. If I want to be a true son to Brother Zach, I must obey Proverb "My son take hide to my word, keep my teachings"; so if I want to be a true son, I must read ZTF's books. The exhortation "My son keep my words, keep my teaching, son ship is an attitude to somebody's words, not in behavior, words. If you forget what a man said, you are not loyal to the man, regardless of what you think you are.

I have always found it is very, I don't know whether God made me so, the Bible is a good book. If I talk to my wife, my secretary, my children and later on they tell me that they forgot what I said, it is not a memory problem, they have a market heart. They are far. They are only lying that they are close, they are living on the past. Nobody's heart is correct and he forget the words of somebody he holds in authority. It is not possible.

When you have co-workers that forget what you told them, don't worry, they may respect you because your position in the organization, but you are not their leader in their heart. Words. A spiritual life was planned so that we cannot cheat. Especially those who are closest to you. When familiarity make them correct, neglect, forget what you said, you should know that they are your enemies, they despise you, they are full of their own plans, their self-seeking. They are not yours. They simply don't know it, time will enable them to know. One day they will know that they despise you, one day they will act out what they have always been. When they forget your words, they will one day forget you, it is a matter of time...

So if I want to be a true son, according to proverbs, I must read very attentively Brother Zach's words, I have no choice, unless I want to go wrong. Nobody is so committed that after some time he can forget to read the books, no one.

The Lord told me: that if I want to maintain the life of fullness, fullness of love, fullness of joy, fullness of the Holy Spirit, fullness of grace, I must give sacrificially to God and man. I must be flowing, continuously, giving is the only way to maintain fullness.

Once a man starts thinking about himself, he has abandoned the way of fullness.

The Lord told me that if I want to be faithful as a leader, I must continue to evangelize, at a personal level and in public. He told me: any leader who stops evangelizing abandons the vision. He begins to be rotten and carries worldly worries. He told me, if you want to maintain your leadership evangelize. Continuous evangelism keeps a leader on the pathway of the vision. Any leader who abandons personal and group evangelism, will backslide into administration and turn round and round and round: How to buy land? how to buy drum set? How to sew the choir uniform? How to help the poor brethren to start a business? Administration, administration, administration, that is the punishment for who are not evangelizing, you will become the dust bin of people's problems.

Those are some of my personal safeguards.
You need safeguards so that you don't go astray.

Have you identify what you must maintain in order that you keep going where you ought to go? If not, you may start well and end in the bush. A little success, some money in your pocket, a few political supporters, and you are lost. Be very careful, remember Rehoboam, remember Solomon, people who started well, blessed by God.

There is an increasing tendency to imitate all the other ministries. There is an increasing tendency of establishing other goals, they will fail. Why? Because they are in CMFI. If they left CMF and set their goals, and do what they like, they may succeed but if you are in CMFI, and you are not of CMFI, you are like somebody who is moving against the stream and if the rain is heavy, like this crusade when we are praying like that, the rain is heavy, it will sweep you. It will fail. If you want to be grass, grow in the bush, don't grow in somebody's farm, because they will weed you. Nobody weed the grass that is in the bush but if I plant my corn in my farm and I know what I want and grass start growing there, even good grass like "kelenkelen", it will be uprooted.

Why give yourself too much trouble?

If you are inside the ministry, be of the ministry. It is easier. Don't be looking around. When you are inside here, eat the food that we have, at least that is what we have.

Pray that all the missionaries in our ministry

- Prions que les dirigeants dans notre ministère , les pasteurs, les missionnaires, s'alignent à suivre les voies que Dieu nous a données

John 5: 19

Every son has a very clear vision. He does not look at other ministries, he looks at the father.

A confused missionary, a confused leader has a problem, he is a son of no man, that is why he is looking for directions. For every son, there is no problem about directions, there is no problem about vision. What he sees the father doing, it is what he will do. The future of every son is already mapped out. The way forward for every son is clear. Whatever he sees the father doing, that is the way for him. He would do what he sees. He would do it the same way. No son is confused. If you are confused, your problem is not that you have not received a revelation, your problem is that you lack defining spiritual relation. You don't have one. So you are free to look at all the other ministries. You are a dress,

For any son, the future is clear, the pattern is clear, the way if clear. Says Jesus.

If you are very confused, if our missionaries are very confused, they want to try what they have seen in their many countries, if our leaders are confused, they want to try what they have seen or heard on television, I want to give you an advice, don't stop them, they missed their way. They were going to heaven, they landed in purgatory, now they don't know where to go, they are looking for a way out, so anything that look successful attracts them, you should be sorry for such people, they are not open minded, they are just confused. For the son, the father's example is final. The way of the father is final. What the father does is final and it is enough.

So those who continue in the ways of their fathers, they are not foolish, they have a future.

We must keep laboring to continue in the ways of Brother Zach.

- Pray that the leaders and missionaries in our ministry, at their own level:
  - will determine and pursuit the ways of Brother Zach
- Pray that different pastors will:
  - lead prayer crusades,
  - hold prayer sieges

- call their people to fast
- teach them to give
- Pray that there will be many leaders and many missionaries that will go the way we have been shown, for their good, for our good.

When we were praying in Yaoundé there was praying every night, World Conquest prayer night, we were around 100,000 then, we were already praying all night, with many prayer sieges, with many prayer crusades, that is what it took to carry the work at that level.

Now we want to get to 1 million, that is ten times, we must have ten other places where praying goes on every night. We must have a minimum of ten other Brother Zach, preaching, praying, fasting, to continue only with one Koume where people are praying every night!

When you were a bachelor, you are 5000 a month, then you got married and you drop 6 and you want to continue your food budget with 5000F, all of your children will die of kwashiorkor plus yourself. When you got married, if you were eating 5000, you may need to go up till about 8000. Children eat more than old people, if your salary has not changed by the fourth child and your wife is not working, the soup will finish in the plate and you will be eating with your fingers and soup.

We want to get to 1 million, we need ten places where prayer is going on every night, under leaders who are minimum like Brother Zach, with prayer chains, houses of prayer for all nations, mega churches, the raising of missionaries, funds for world conquest, who will be giving the way Brother Zach was giving to our ministry from Yaoundé

That is a practical application of that prayer topic.

We are urgently in need of 10 others Etoug Ebe.

Either I become 10 times Brother Zach or we have 10 Brother Zach. Then we can get to one million without diluting our ministry and maintain the same spiritual quality.

Do they pray every night in Douala? Yes

Where else do they pray every night for the whole ministry?

- Let five people pray that God will grant us ten other places like Koume where praying for our ministry is going on every night. - It is an urgency.
