THE DIVINE FACTOR : THE BLESSING OF GOD

Praise the Lord!

One of the thing I am trying to do, is to educate the brethren about what to expect from God, to broaden our horizons, to raise our expectations from God. Faith comes from hearing, what we know we can believe.

Some of the things I share each night are the things God is telling me that He wants to do in our ministry.

The Hand of God that I want us to pray this night is something that is particularly close to my own heart.

I want us to pray for God's blessings upon our ministry and I want to say very simply: In the Bible, what God blesses multiplies. Numbers and quantities are tied to God's blesses. What God blesses multiplies.

I want to make a confession. For nine years, every time I am reading my bible, I am underlining, I am doing a bible course on the keys of numbers. Since we started praying for growth in numbers, as I read my bible, I look at God's mind about large numbers and I have come to a very stupendous personal discovery, it has blessed me. Whatever God blesses multiplies.

Genesis 1: 22

Genesis 1: 28

It is the link between numbers and blessings. What God blesses, He multiplies. When God wants to multiply, He blesses.

Genesis 9:1

Genesis 17: 16

What God blesses, He multiplies. What God blesses becomes fruitful. If Noah is blessed, Noah will multiply, if fishes are blessed, fishes will multiply. If Sara is blessed, she will become nations.

Genesis 17: 20

Are you seeing that blessings and numbers are irritably linked? It is a frightful thing to be spiritually barren. It has nothing to do with spiritual gifts, it has to do with what you are like before God. An Ishmael who is blessed is an Ishmael that will become exceedingly numerous.

Genesis 22:16-18

It is important to please God because when God has sworn to bless you, He will bless you and again blessings are tied to numbers and to quality. Numbers, quality and quantity.

Genesis 26: 3-5

Genesis 26: 24

Blessing/numbers, blessings/quality, blessings/strength

Genesis 28:3-4

Genesis 35: 9-12

When God blesses, He multiplies. A man should do everything to please God. We should do everything to receive the blessings of God as a ministry.

Genesis 48: 15-16

When God blesses, He multiplies, abiding souls, when the people that God gives to you becomes kings, becomes leaders. It is a terrible thing to have your spiritual children who remain babies and children.

There is a blindness that when God blesses some people, they don't even know that He has bless them, they cannot survive with greatness. When their people begin to become big, they want the people to remain small. To produce those who conquer the gates of their enemies.

If you are five years in the Lord, in this our ministry, when you read the bible like this, which of your children has become an international missionary? The people you have touched in the Lord, who of them have become an elder? The assembly you lead, how has it performed in your hands? The signature of God. The sisters in the assembly, how many of you are "sarai"? Where are your sons that take nations? Why are you not a mother of nations? What is your vision of feminity in the Hands of God? Why are we so blind? What a terrible curse that you are 10 years in the lord, you don't even produce stable people, you don't produce kings, you don't produce elders, did you not read these bible passages? When your own disciples go on the mission field, they run away from there, instead of possessing the gates of the enemies, they run from their enemies. You produce runaway, other people produce conquistadors, your own disciples children what do they look like. If we saw things like this, we will be the ones who are desperate to make disciples. All these years, where are the kings that came from your loins, where are the nations that came? Where are the international missionaries? Your own disciples love the world, you taught them to love the civil service more than heaven. It is a natural law, eagle give birth to eagle. When you produce a hen that looks only around his legs and pick only the food available nearby, who gave birth to that chicken, a big chicken? You. Chicken born chicken, eagle born eagle. Your own disciples, they never attend prayer meetings, when they come they sleep. Among the ministers of fasting, your children are not there. What did you born? What have your produce? Numbers, nations, kings, quantity and quality.

I want to help you start looking at our ministry in a certain way. When you take the international missionaries, the largest number came from which church? That pastor has suddenly become the father of nations. While stingy pastors who think that they are very wise to keep the best people for themselves, you will be a local chief.

I always think like that. I always write the name of international missionaries and asked: who is the greatest pastor who has produced international missionaries? Not all these pygmies women, pygmies men..

Il y a l'apparence d'être sage alors qu'on est insensé

When you start thinking about blessing, then you will be grateful that the father of this ministry labor to obey God because God blesses those who obey, then you stop being frighten by the pathway he walked. When God said "I will bless you because your father obeyed". God does not even want to disgrace a backslidden leader because of the name he carried, very soon it becomes very great to become a son of David. Now if somebody was your spiritual child, what is his future? The way you are.

What God blesses, God multiplies.

So even inside the ministry, time is chromatographic, time will separate people into who is who. Father of nations.

Or somebody whose name shall be a curse.

What will you produce?

With all our noise, what do you produce?

Where are your elders?

Where are the missionaries

Where are the possessors of the gates of the enemies?

Where are the patrons of our ministry that you produce?

What comes from you?

Big givers you have not produced, big servants you have not produces, big missionaries, quarter missionaries, city missionaries, you have not produced, you only produce those who are excommunicated, you only produce harden people who don't pay tithes?

- Stand up and pray: I want to be an Abraham, multitudes, many, when people come around me, out of personal ambitions, I want them to be big men, I tell them that they are big men, I may one day end up being a king producers, instead of being Jonathan swift among the Lilliputian.

I want us to pray, for many years, Brother Zach has labored that we should be a community that pleases God, if you offer God quality, He will bless it. If you offer God something He approves, He will bless.

Let me take a very minimum application : The money you give to God, give it so that God can bless you. Does God no know what it cost you? The value it has? And where it came from? It is not all money given to God that God bless. Please give the money that God can bless. You can be Ananias and Saphira, giving the impression that the money you give to God cost you more than it has cost you, does He not know? Why give God something that will instead bring you a curse? Please give what God can bless. Why waste your money month after month, giving what cannot receive the approval of God? Please give God what He can bless, for your good. Why give God a lie, you give Him what cost you nothing. That is just a basic application, and it applies to everything. What you give to the church, can the God of heaven bless it? What you give to the children of God, can heaven approve it? Can God take it? That is the message of Malachi.

Malachi 1: 6-14

Verse 9: on prie souvent que Dieu ait pitié de nous, mais avec le genre d'offrande que nous lui donnons, est-ce qu'Il va écouter nos prières? Il y a des offrandes qui bloquent les prières. Ce qui ne va pas être honorable à ton gouverneur et penser que Dieu va l'accepter, c'est avoir considéré Dieu comme le "dieu poubelle".

Quelqu'un peut finir par s'attirer des malédictions à cause de ce qu'il donne au Seigneur.

So please, be careful. For many years, Brother Zach has taught us to be a people that God can approve. That we should labor to please God because God will bless what He approves. He first made man in His image before blessing him to multiply. God first produces what will not contradict His nature before He blesses it.

In everything we do, let us aim for the blessings of God. I took just one simple application: give so that it can please God. What you give, how you give, matters to God. You can bring the offering of Naaman, but if you have the leprosy of Naaman, God will not touch your offering, remove the leprosy.

- Let us pray, that we will follow the ways Brother Zach has taught us, laboring to be a people that pleases God. But if you are like these people in Malachi and you have gotten to the point where you despise God by saying, "All these things is a waste of time, what is the profit in it? What a burden", if you have gotten there, then you have gotten very near to a curse.
- Let's pray that at a personal level and as a ministry, we will follow this pathway of pleasing God.
- Pray that God will grant us to be convinced that God blesses only what He approves.
- Pray that God will stamp on our lives the fact that He blesses only what He approves
- Pray : "Oh Lord, bless our ministry and multiply our numbers"

Many people were praying that God will make them fathers like Abraham, it breaks both a natural and a spiritual law. If you are short and you pray that God will make you give birth to a tall yarrow, your prayer is tempting nature. Normally just like men are born and inject evil in their progeny, in the same way, you can do an exaggerated good so that the people you produce can also be like that. It is exaggerated virtue that constitute the model for disciples. It is exaggerated virtue that become something that can be imitated. Whatever you want to pass on, you must exaggerate it in yourself, positively or negatively. What you want to reproduce, you must exaggerate it in yourself.

We should look at the prayers we are praying. It is not enough to say "Lord, let me produce missionaries, are you a missionary? Lord, let me produce leaders, are you a leader? Can a banana tree produce mangoes? It is exaggerated virtue that becomes a transmittable model. If nothing is exaggerated in you, you will produce mediocrity. If I pray, "Oh Lord enable me to produce missionaries", it is because I have been a missionary to Nigeria. If I pray, "Oh Lord, enable me to produce elders, it is because I was an elder in the church in Yaoundé. If I pray, Oh lord, "enable me to produce men of prayer", it is because I was the director of the Prayer room in charge of the Conquest of Africa. You can't produce what you are not. Do you want to produce those mighty giants in fasting? Then fast in an exaggerated way. You want to produce lovers of Christ? Give to God madly.

We must develop the profiles that we intend to duplicate. So many of the prayers were not honest.

I can pray that the Lord would enable me to produce many people who are committed to the accomplishment of this vision, because I am His son, I hope a true one. Because a true son carries only his father's business. You cannot produce what you are not. Whatever is exaggerated in you becomes a genetic characteristic. We all know that if they see your mother like a junior elephant, everybody knows that you have breath. What you want to produce spiritually, you must become. When people go through the church of Bertoua, what shall they become?

Ce sont les vertus dominantes, exagérées qui s'incrument.

Si Dieu ne t'a pas fait des fissures profondes, tu ne peux pas te reproduire. Quand une personne est plate et quelque chose ne l'a pas blessé profondément, il ne peut pas produire une image. Ce sont les profondes fissures qui ressortent l'image. Si Dieu doit se servir de moi pour transmettre ce que je suis chez l'autre, où sont les fissures? Si tu veux imprimer ton image chez quelqu'un, alors il faut de profondes blessures. Plus les fissures sont profondes, plus cette image va durer. Dans le langage des cachets, si les fissures sont légères, après cinquante tampons le cachet devient plat, ainsi si Dieu veut tamponner ta vie sur les autres, il faut qu'il y ait de profondes blessures. Commence comme le frère Zach, avant que son don ne se reproduise sur les autres à 10%, cela aura déjà fait 400 ans.

On a devant nous l'ambition de cacheter un milliard de copies, what kind then must we be? The image must be sharp.

- Five people to pray that our ministry will develop spiritual profiles that can be reproduced, exaggerated profiles than can be reproduced.
